The leading points are summa-rized as follows: In conclusion it is

First + That Mr. McEnery and his friends are stopped, in all honor, from further questioning the title of Gov. Kellogg, as governor of Liouislana, first, because McEnery agreed to submit his claims to the congressional committee, and the majority of this committee have expressed their opinion that Gov. Kellogg was elected in 1872

Second-Because his own partisab islature is accepted on all sides as the undisputed legislature of the state, almost ununimously passed all joint reso lution recognizing Gov Kellogga has governor of the state

Third-Because Mr. McEntry has but these results have followed from the adoption of the adjustment, and, Lastly-Because Mr McEnery and bis friends, as sealous and consistent upholders of the doctrine of state rights, will surely not ask the congress of the United States to interfere, and by its action to annul the solemn act of a recognized legislature of a sover-
